

Transformative
Justice Solutions

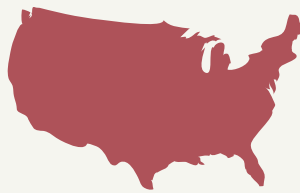

TJS Celebrates One Year in Business

10 advocates with lived experiences trained in our 5-week Spanish/English workshop, Storytelling to Transform Our World

132 Pro Bono Hours
Donated to Nonprofits

Clients served in Missouri, New York, New Mexico, South Carolina, Florida, California, and Washington, DC

Coalition work around reentry, gun violence, crisis response systems, and restorative justice

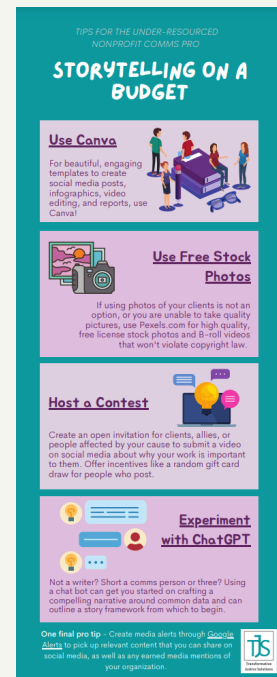

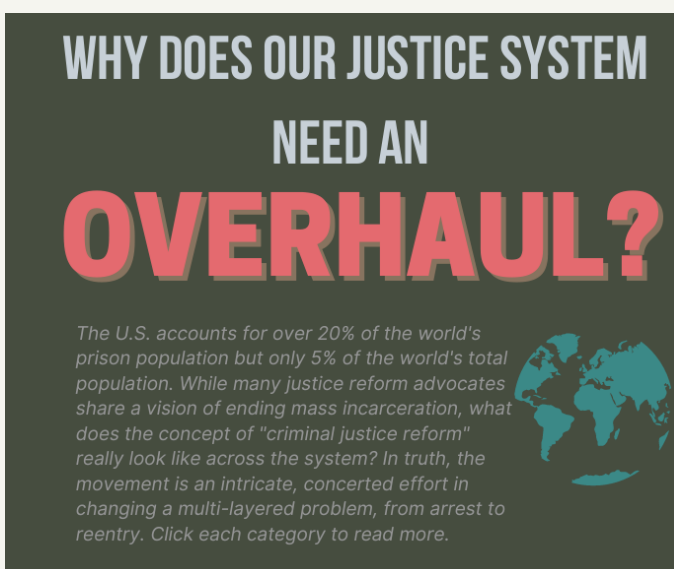

Working with TJS and Katherine has been, in a word, transformative for my team and our work as we've built out our storytelling initiative this year. Katherine is incredibly insightful and brought into every conversation her years of expertise building out speaker bureaus and supporting speakers in a careful, intentional and trauma-informed way. Katherine is incredibly responsive, sets ambitious timelines for work delivery that she always keeps, produces wonderful and creative work, and is open to honest feedback, learning, and growing in collaboration with her clients.

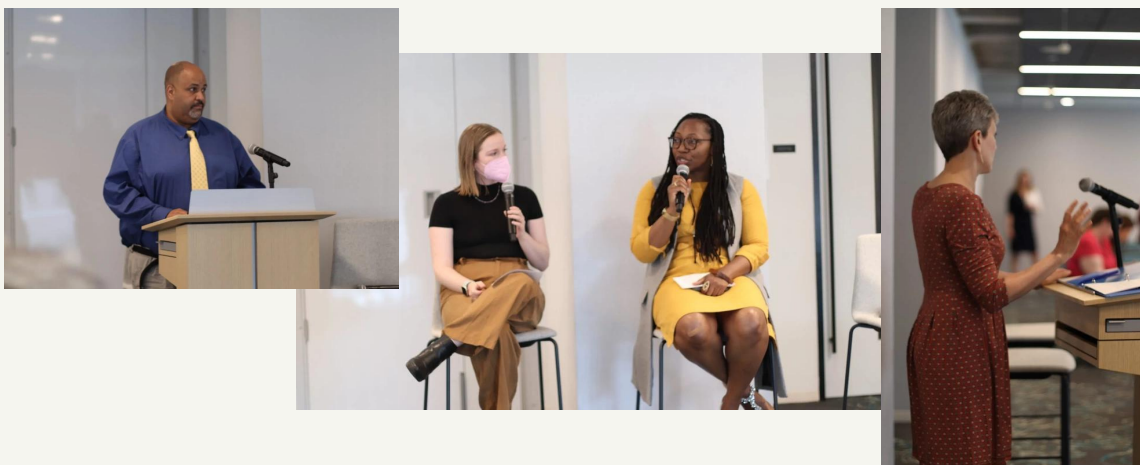

Toni Francis-Bowie
National Women's Law Center

Tools Developed

Upward: A Second Chance Employer Symposium at Deloitte

What's Next for TJS?

Keep an eye out for updates on The Healing Outlet App, our assistance in coordinating the National Week of Healing, our forthcoming "Burnout in Social Justice" tool, upcoming trainings, and more. For more information, follow us on LinkedIn @TJSDC or visit www.transformthework.com